Feast of the Dedication

On the Anniversary of the Dedication of a Church

O Almighty God,
to whose glory we celebrate the dedication of this
house of prayer:

We give thee thanks for the fellowship of those who have worshipped in this place;
and we pray that all who seek thee may find
thee,
and be filled with thy joy and peace;
through Jesus Christ our Lord

David Moxon to step down The Archbishop of Canterbury's representative to the Holy See and director of the Anglican centre in Rome Archbishop David Moxon is to retire in June next year after four years in the post. Archbishop Justin Welby and the governors of the Anglican centre in Rome have begun the search for an Anglican bishop to succeed him for the combined post, which has been dubbed "the Archbishop of Canterbury's Spymaster General."

Removal of Holy Cross windows to take place in early December Fr Hugh met with the tradesman who will remove the four stained glass windows from Holy Cross on site on Thursday morning. This signals the removal of the windows at the end of the sale tender process expected to be in early December, their storage in especially constructed wooden crates and their safe storage at St Peter's.

Family news Katie Bowron has concluded her time at the Ashburn clinic and has now moved to Christchurch where she is staying with friends while reconnecting with a number of professional carers whom she has found to be effective and helpful in the past.
