The Pebble

22 July 2018

16th Sunday, Year B

The Church is where men and woman experience a sense of being at home, of belonging, not only to one another in a unified humanity as fellow citizens, but also to God himself as part of his household or family. This new society is also a building, a temple, where humans are the building material which God the builder has already made into his dwelling place... The Church is already the temple in which God dwells. Yet, it is at the same time a building under construction, where through their relationship with Christ and to one another, believers are still being shaped into a fit sanctuary for God. It is to be characterised by growth and holiness as it becomes what it already is... The readers of this Epistle (Ephesians) are to see themselves as the building material God has chosen to utilise for his temple of the end-time pervaded by the Spirit, and thereby to gain a greater sense of their identity as those with a privileged role to play in the working out of God's purposes in the world.

Clergy funeral from St Peter's At the time of going to press St Peter's was preparing to host the funeral of the Revd Philip Charles on Saturday at 11 am. Philip was active in the ministry of both Tikanga Pakeha and Tikanga Maori in Otago and Southland over many years. He and Nora often came to St Peter's for major Services such as the Easter Vigil. The Bishop of Te Waipounamu, the Venerable Richard Wallace, was expected to have a prominent part in this Service.

Looking ahead There will be Evensong and Benediction followed by a social hour in the lounge on Sunday 5 August at 5 pm, the Sunday the Vicar returns.

Pray for the Sick and Infirm Claire Johnston, Margaret Sterling, Mahlia Napier, Paul Hill, and John Steele.

Pray for those whose anniversary occurs at this time Irene Wright, Martha Allen, Marie Brown, Alice Hopkins and Beryl Heazlewood.

Brass band concert items The programme for the St Kilda brass band concert here at St Peter's on Saturday 8 September is taking shape. Items so far agreed are Fanfare for the Common Man by Aaron Copeland, Clair de Lune by Debussy, James Bond Collection arranged by Jerry Goldsmith, Concerto de Aranjuez by Rodrigo, Liberty Bell March by Sousa, Nimrod and Finale by Elgar, Trumpet Concerto by Henry James, Stranger on the Shore. We might say a prayer for guest conductor Shane Foster and the band as they prepare for the national championships at the end of this month at which they compete to keep their pre-eminent position amongst New Zealand's brass bands. We ran out of posters advertising the concert last week but they are now replenished and available from the altar at the back of the church. Your help in advertising this event would be much appreciated.

Change of date for Frances Hodgkins Service The Anglican Eucharist will be celebrated at Frances Hodgkins on Thursday 9 August rather than in the first Thursday of the month due to the Vicar being away in the first week of August.

This was to assist with the writing of the chapter of the parish history entitled The Mission of the Church: the rise and fall of the mission churches. The first interview was filmed in 2015.
