The Pebble

Sunday July 24, 2022

Ordinary 17

Almighty and merciful God,
more ready to hear than we to pray,
giving more than either we desire or
deserve;
pour down upon us the abundance of
your mercy,
forgive us those things
of which our conscience is afraid,
and give us those good things
which we are not worthy to ask,
except through your Son our Saviour
Jesus Christ.
AMEN.

Meeting Today...

Parishioners are invited to gather for a meeting to discuss the parish buildings and maintenance in the Lounge after the 10.30 am service.

From the Vicar...

Dan and I bought a Wild Bird feeder and have been enjoying watching the little Silvereyes relishing the free-feed. A sole Gold Finch visited and we're hoping it will bring its friends and family to visit, too. We are intending to encourage more birds to this area as it appears there may be fewer and fewer gardens available for them in the future.

As St Peter's continues to look forward and I pray we can reach some sort of consensus in order to support and enhance, not only this present congregation, but the community and the congregations which will follow.

We have been blessed as custodians of this place and hopefully we will be able to extend this blessing into the future, through our consideration of others.
