The Pebble

Sunday October 9, 2022

Ordinary 28

God of compassion,
deepen and increase our love for you
so that we may leave behind the sins from which you have redeemed us,
and serve you in perfect freedom.

AMEN.

From the Vicar

People dealt with the weather on Thursday in many different ways. I couldn’t wait to get outside and take photos to send home. I wandered around the church and up the street, there was very little traffic. Zack and I played in the snow and had a great time. I then cleared the paths for church and enjoyed the flurries, wondering how long it would keep snowing. I was pleased that it lasted for as long as it did. It reminded me of my childhood. Making snow castles, tobogganing off the roof and skiing to school are some of my most cherished memories. Dan remained cosy by the heater and looked through the windows.

I hope everyone had a nice day and enjoyed the weather as they saw appropriate. Each day is going to be different and it’s up to us to make of it what we will, but let us never forget to praise God for the gifts he provides. Rejoice always, pray constantly; in everything give thanks, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus. Natalie.

Anglican Historical Society The AHS is a respected organization of professional historians, independent researchers and interested clergy and laity. A website (currently undergoing refurbishment) gives a good idea of the aims and interests of the organization and can be accessed at www.historyanglican.nz Everyone is welcome and currently membership is free. More about this in the next Rock.
