The Pebble

Sunday November 20, 2022

Christ the King

Collect for Christ the King

Christ who reigns, you care for the least amongst us,
give us courage to enact your gospel in all the world,
that all people may see your glory.
For you are alive and reign with the Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God now and forever.
AMEN.

WELCOME

to all who are sharing in worship with us today and those who read the Pebble on-line.

Rev Hugh Bowron "St Peter's Caversham 1864-2000: A study in stubborn persistence and of remarkable and timely good fortune"

From the Vicar

During my recent travels I found a beautiful quote from St Isaac the Syrian. "A merciful heart.....grows tender and cannot endure hearing or seeing any injury or slight sorrow for anything in creation." This thought brings us to the question of what our role is, as people of mercy. We need to be mindful of all our interactions and humble in our requests because in reality not everything succeeds or runs to plan, despite our best efforts. Our ultimate preference should be to others, despite the sacrifice. Thank you for your mercy and prayers last week and praise God for the incredible healing both of bodies and hearts.

Natalie.
