The Pebble

Sunday January 1, 2023

Holy Family

Collect.

Almighty and everlasting God,
your Son Jesus Christ shared at Nazareth
the life of an earthly home;
grant that we and all your children
may live together in peace and joy,
until we come to that eternal home
which you have prepared for those who love you;
through Jesus Christ our Lord
who is alive with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God now and forever. AMEN.

From the Vicar

The sunshine over the last few days prompted me to dig in the garden, again. What surprised me was that the soil is quite dry. The cloudy drizzly days and rain had not done as I expected.

So often what we think we see happening, may not be the case and churches are a brilliant example. Often people walk into a church and perceive a group of religious people, but

We are all at various phases of life, family situations and faith stages, and none have all the answers. It's only when we start to truly look and share, do we appreciate the diversity and various perceptions that build our faith. The nativity of Jesus Christ embodies the diversity still evident in today's society, and those who search for the Christ come from all walks of life.
