From the Vicar

Dan and I have renovated a few houses but sadly just as we're about to install an ensuite, we move. Yes, truly! You may ask why I am so keen to have such a luxury. It's because I like baths and houses these days don't have decent sized baths. A bath isn't just about getting clean. A bath relaxes the mind, as well as the body. There's an ancient concept in the saying, 'Cleanliness is next to Godliness.' But what does that mean? It means that as we journey through this life we will regularly become grimy, smelly and offensive. The things we think, say and do will cause offense because we are humans. If we begin to pay attention (repent) of the things that offend, we are actively tidying up our relationships and how we engage with the world.

Jesus Christ shed his blood and died to prove that nothing we think, do or say will condemn us, if we repent, have faith and desire a relationship with God. Our relationship with God is cleaned through faith in the Blood of Christ and as we become cleaner and more relaxed, we more become pleasant to know.

"...if we walk in the light, as He is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanseth us from all sin."
1 John 1:7
